County Superintendent McCowen received his BS degree in Education from Ohio University, the Masters Degree from Northwestern University and has attended both Otterbein College and Harvard University.

Several Districts are in the process of starting new school construction amounting to somewhat over a million dollars. This money is coming from the Federal Government as a result of the A Plant. Rural Schools have already received thousands of dollars for school operation from the same source." Mr. McCowen continued his statement with this conclusion, "We shall continue to strive for the best in buildings and better educational opportunities for all boys and girls in our Rural Schools."

Vision In Room 39

Once when I had finished dinner, it was one day in the winter,
And the snow was round about us, drifted deep upon the ground,
In thirty-nine I sat a-thinking, fancy unto fancy linking
Till finally I started sinking, sinking into sleep profound.
Of a dream I had I'll tell you, of a vision which took place,

In thirty-nine, the study room.

Presently my name was spoken, thus the silence had been broken,
By a tall and stately person, clothed in flowing robes of white.
There upon his shoulder sitting, perched a blackbird, eyes a-twitting,
With its body always flitting, flitting hither left and right.
But once again the man was speaking, and his words left my brain reeking,

"You are here to see the light."

"What are you?" I cried in horror. And he answered with much furor,
"We are but the guardian angels of the students in your school.
For Wheelersburg is our dominion, and students there, in our opinion,
Are made to work, both peg and pinion, and follow strictly all the rules.
You will see some fine examples, we will show you many samples."

Said the blackbird: "that we'll do."

Then at once the scene was shifted, to a grout height I was lifted,
And I looked upon a sight, 'twas Mr. Estep's study hall.
Then at once I saw him sneaking, upon a student who was sleeping,
Unaware of Estep's creeping, up to his place nearby the wall.
Estep grasped him by the shoulder, "Okay, Johnson, dreams are over;

See you later in the hall."

Once again the scene was changed, and through the building we had ranged,
It was the Senior English Class that now I found before my eyes.
The Seniors every one lamented, and with good cause, I consented,
For with Macbeth they were confronted, the room was filled with tears and cries.
But Miss Richards turned an ear, deaf to all, she could not hear

The various complaints and sighs.

And now we are in twenty-two, Tis speech class, there much ado
For students are engrossed in learning, the finer art of speaking well.
Eagerly they wished the ringing, of the bell which would be bringing,
Freedom from this long and seeming, place much like a citadel.
Each student in his seat did squirm, awaiting name and thus his turn

To speak, and thereby ring his knell.
This and more I had observed, and it left me quite unnerved,
When once again this Person spoke, in monotone much like a jum,
"Now, you see, we just protect you, from these things which would affect you,
And would in no small doubt wreck you, mentally in years to come.
We protect you from the teachers, you students are our chosen creatures,

We watch over every one."

All at once my dream was broken, by a term quite aptly spoken
As I came back to my senses, I was greeted with reprove.
Up I looked and I was staring, into the eyes of Miller, glaring
Watching me, and doubly daring, me to make just one false move.
"Okay buddy, you know where the office is, so proceed there,
And 'till I get there, don't you move."
In the office now I'm waiting, about my fate I'm contemplating.
I wonder all about my vision, and the scenes revealed to me.
As I sit, I stop to wonder, and my thoughts are torn asunder,
But a voice not unlike thunder, now approaches Mr. See.
Alas! Now I have learned my lesson, they have hurt my prize possession,
No more naps in study hall for me.

Robert W. Harner.

GRADUATION DAY!

It's so much different from what we anticipated . . . Oh, yes, we are proud, and, truthfully, relieved that we passed all our final examinations . . . But everything -- our lonely class rooms, our stacked textbooks, our empty desks -- everything is so FINAL.

Our lives HERE are over, but we feel well prepared to face our futures with confidence. We know that we go out to live in the greatest country on earth, a country that will be what we, America's Youth, will make of it.

Remember that Thanksgiving Meal? Yum!

And then we ate soup.

Getting into practice?

Do you read "The Heart of Juliet Jones," a comic strip in the TIMES? This is Stan Drake, the cartoonist who draws that strip. Our annual staff members, who attended the Ohio University publications workshop in Athens last July, obtained this picture of Mr. Drake. He gave one of the major lectures at the workshop, illustrating his talk with sketches of his comic strip characters.
