Foreword

The '71 Senatorian is an attempt to display the individuality of Portsmouth West High School and its students. It is a collection of words, pictures, and memories of what a student finds in high school life. It is hoped that the reader will enjoy this book now and cherish it in the years to come.

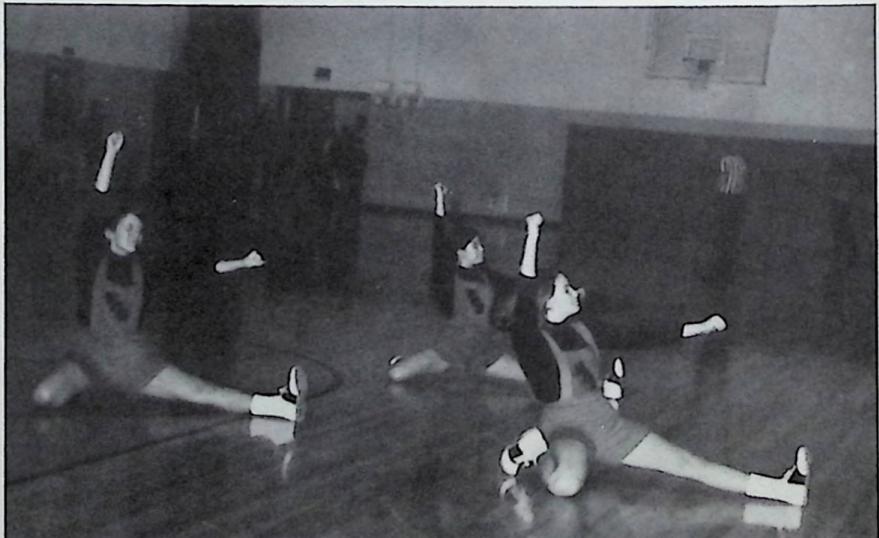

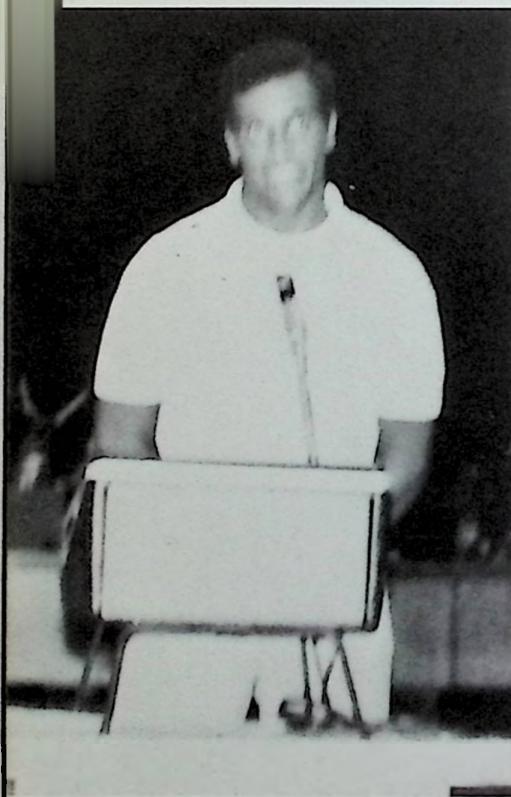

Nita Yount

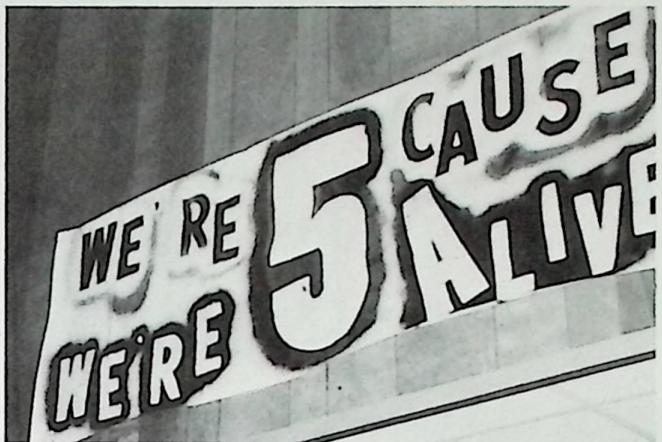

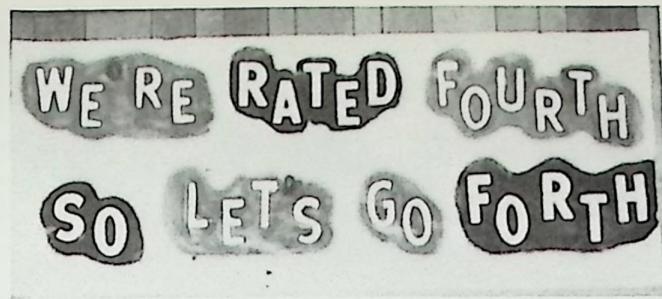

What we have once enjoyed, we can never lose. A sunset, a mountain bathed in moonlight, the ocean in calm and in storm — we see these, love their beauty, hold the vision in our hearts. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us. Our beloved ones are no more lost to us than if they were still laughing and loving and working and playing at our side. Truly, Life is overlord of Death, and Love can never lose its own. —

Math

With keen minds and eager enthusiasm, Mrs. Williams and Mr. Sayre wield the tools of their trade — slide rules, protractors, compasses, and rules.

English

The students at West were fortunate in having an extremely talented English department. The teachers had diversified interests and there was something for every student. Miss Orlett, Mr. Shively, Mr. Chapman, Mrs. Orlett, and Mrs. Distel all made literature and language really relate to life.

Miss Orlett, Mr. Shively, Mr. Chapman, Mrs. Orlett.

Special Interests

Mr. Williams, Mrs. Crum, Mr. Kirwin, Mrs. Wines, Mr. Boring.

The objective of a better and safer life — at home and at work was the subject of our Special Interests Department.

Fine Arts

Everything from Mozart to Monet was included in our Fine Arts Department. Under the very capable hands of Mrs. Distel, Mrs. Reitz, Mr. Childers, and Mr. Giles nothing was lacking the students in their quest for culture.

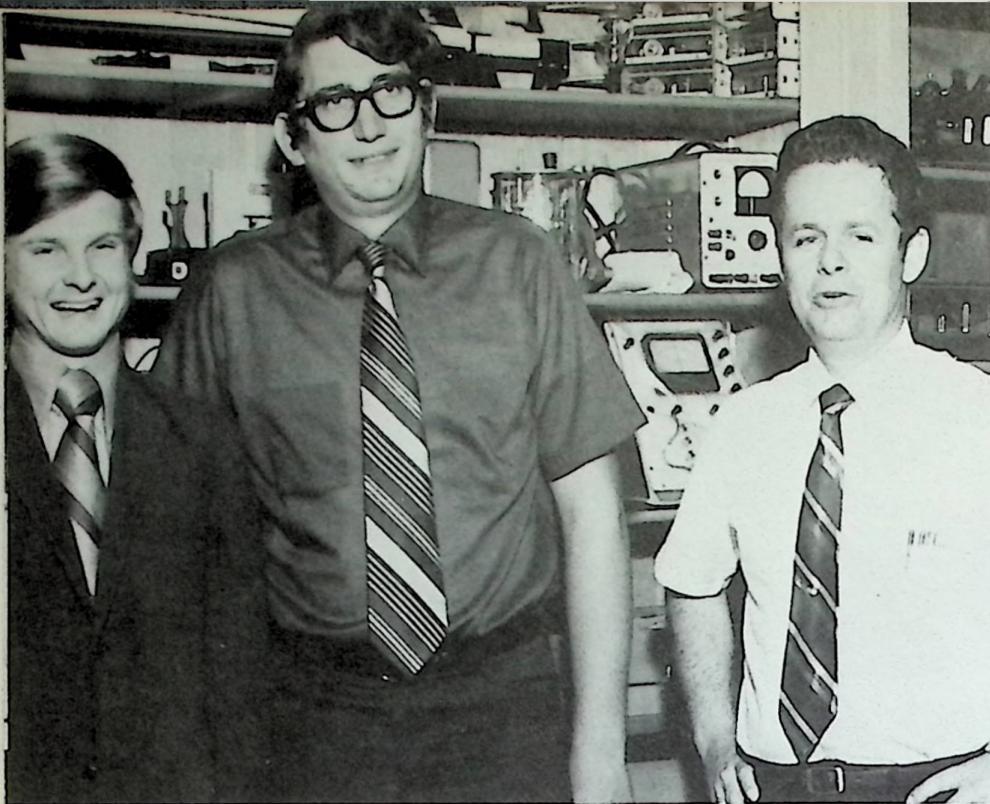

Mr. Childers

Mr. Giles, Mrs. Reitz, Mrs. Distel.

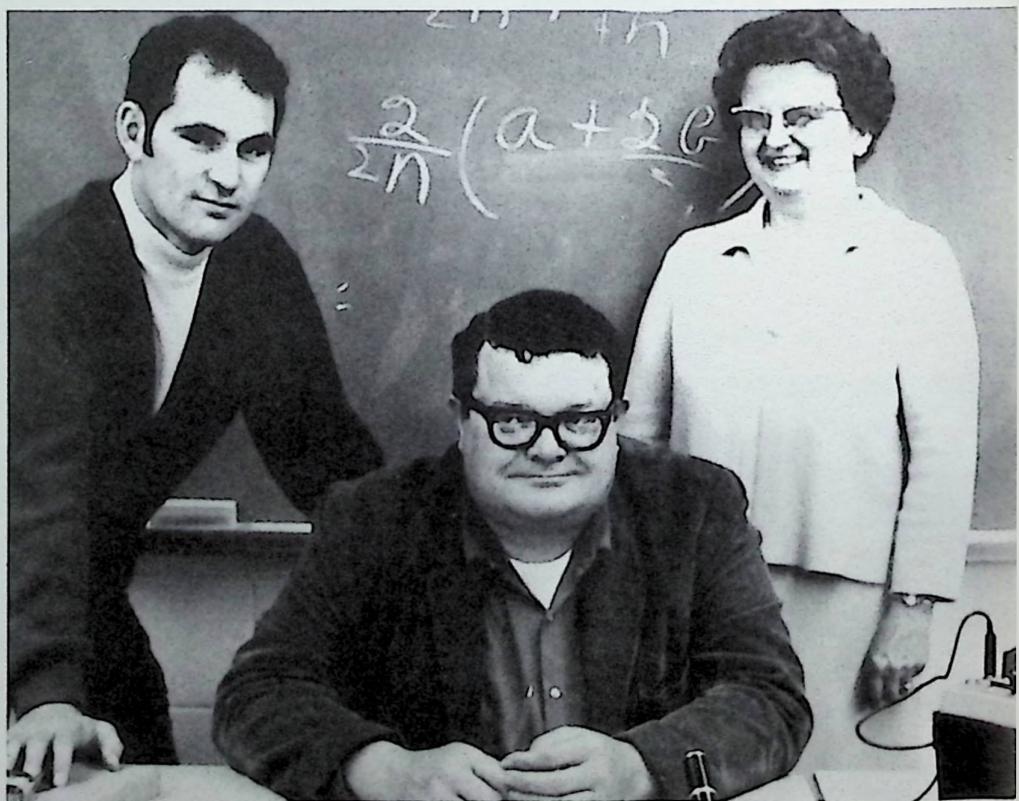

Science

Mr. Brown, Mr. Albert, Mr. Crum.

A well-equipped lab and vital, energetic science teachers are the prime reasons why West students are challenged in their scientific study of man and materials.

Mr. McGraw, Mr. Conley, Mrs. Grashel.

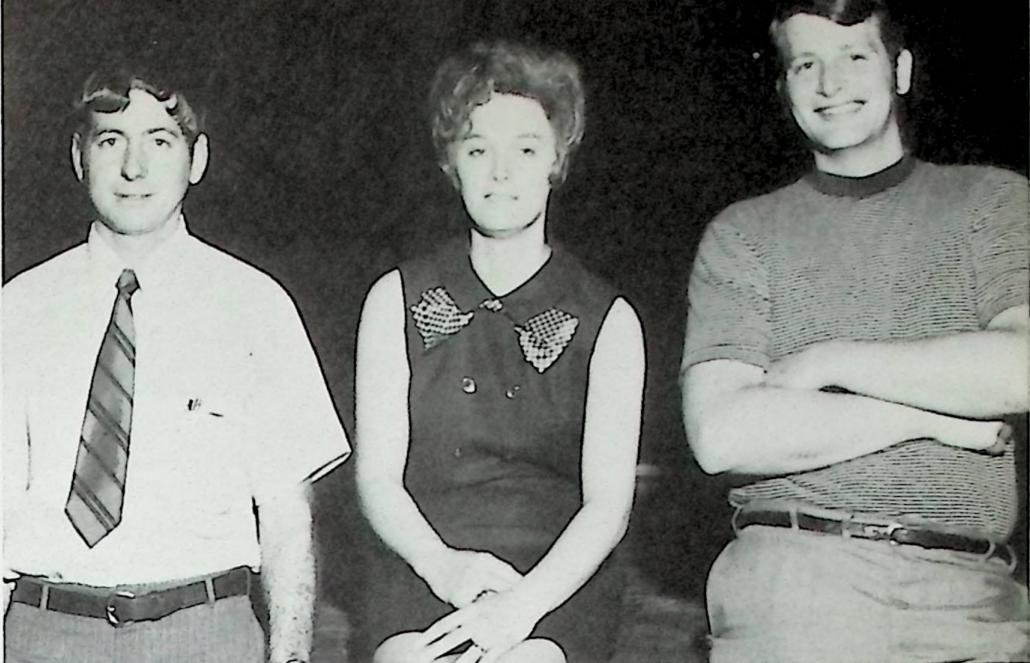

Social Sciences

Mr. McGraw and Mr. Meeker, instilled in the students a respect for the past, while Mr. Conley and Mrs. Grashel bring to their classes ways to better understand the laws of modern man and his place in society.

Physical Education

Strong bodies make eager minds. West has both because of the leadership and inspiration of these teachers. Mr. Swain, Mrs. Hazelbaker, and Mr. Penn are good examples of the sparkle and enthusiasm that comes with leading the "good life."

Mr. Swain, Mrs. Hazelbaker, Mr. Penn.

Commercial

Our department really means business, and we like it that way. When West students leave school for the work-a-day world they are welcomed as competent and versatile assets to any business.

Mrs. Gillette, Mr. Sowkulech, Mrs. Newton.

Just Thinking . . .

Happy?

It's all in a day's work.

ries

Insecurity is . . .

I'll get this done if it's the last thing I do!

What am I doing in this place?

Senior Who's Who

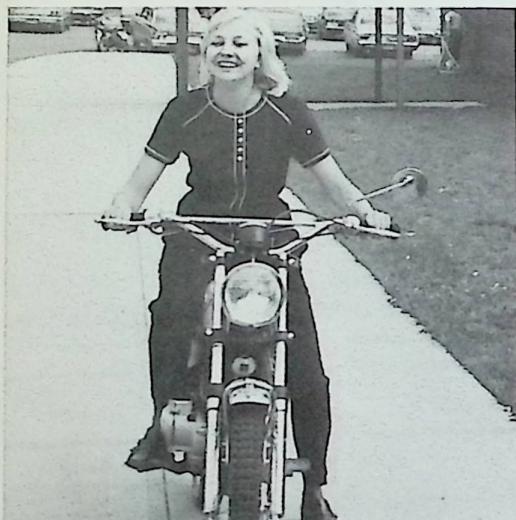

The Senior Who's Who is our way of recognizing the ten most outstanding senior students of 1970. To be well-liked is desirable and fun, but to be greatly respected is enduring and elevating. Each of the following has been chosen by the teachers of seniors as individual, class, and school leaders who deserve accolades for scholarship, art or musical talent, athletics, or fine character.

We of the yearbook staff respect their choices because having worked, played, and talked with these students we have found them to be energetic and warm human beings.

SPORTS

Football Bonanza

The 1970 Portsmouth West football squad was marked by spirit, drive, and a will to win which, as a rule, is always a winning formula.

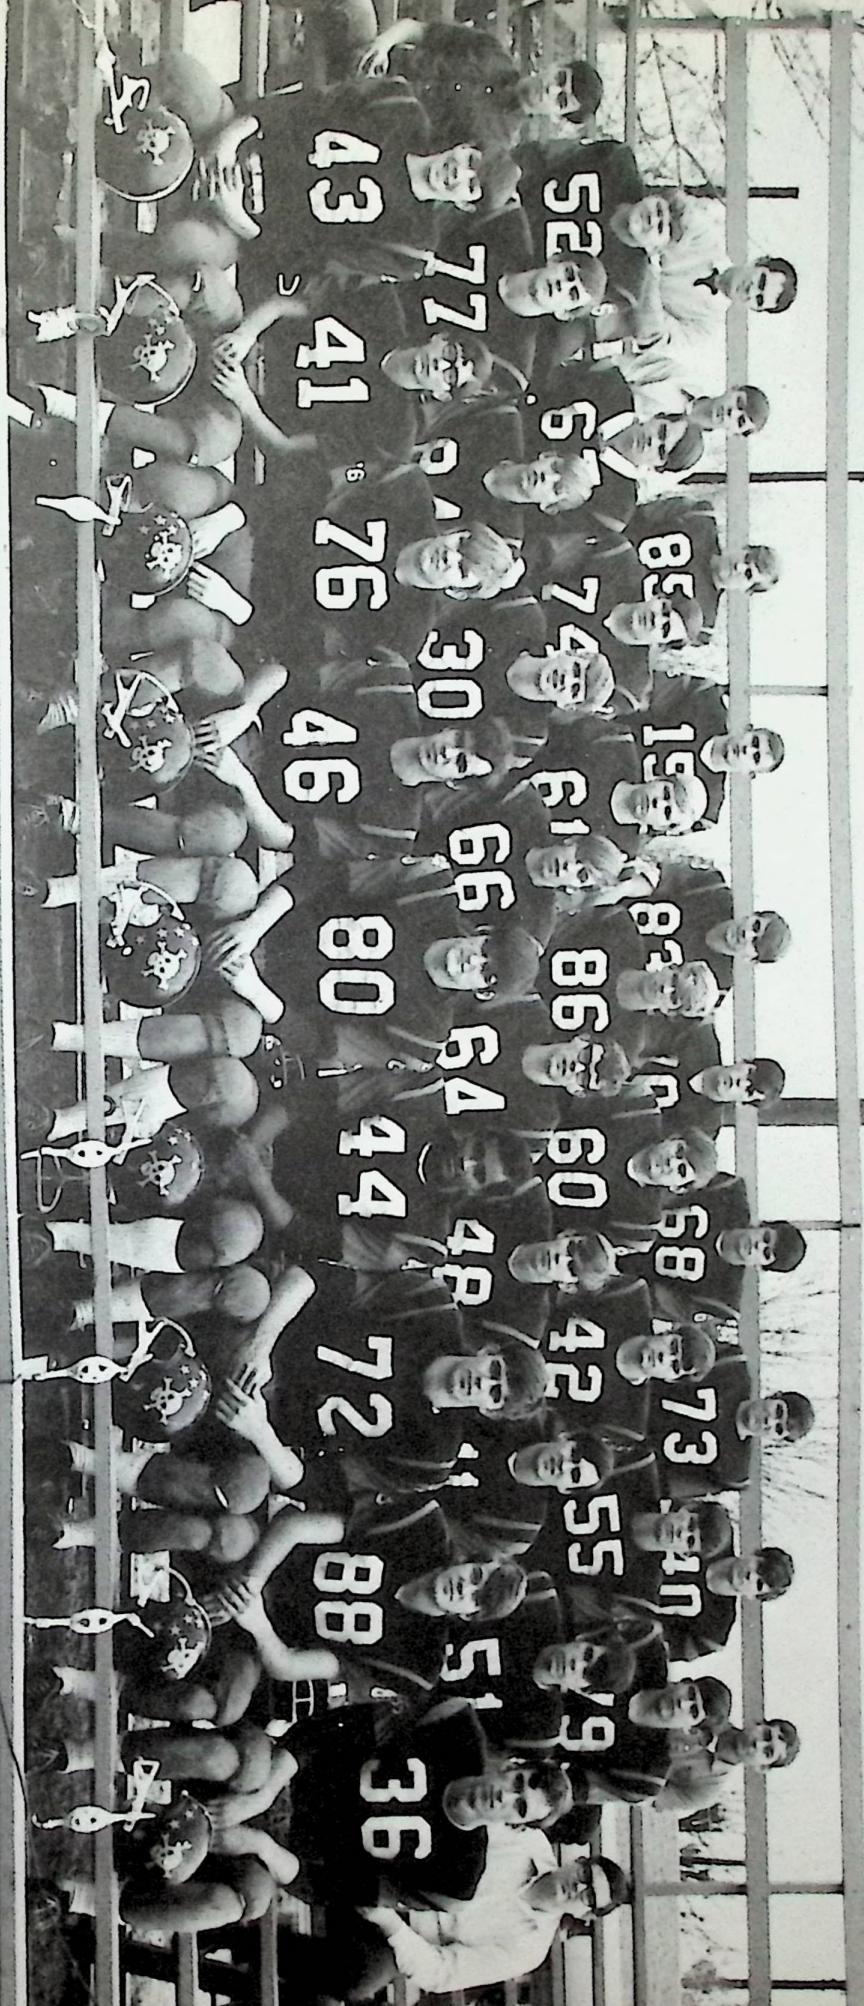

The 1970 team was no exception to this rule as the Big Orange Machine rolled up 9 wins against only one loss, while taking the SCL Championship. This fantastic win-loss record is a tribute to the fine coaching of Mr. Swain, head coach, his assistant Mr. McGraw, and line coach Mr. Farley, as well as to a "tough" football team.

Head Coach, Mr. Swain, and Terry Gardner discuss an important play.

Football Homecoming

Autumn Victories

The name of the game was victory. Spirit was high and winning was in the air. West had a winning team, and at homecoming activities the whole community was captivated by the winning ways of the homecoming queen and her court.

Queen Jenny, Louann, Connie, Roberta, and Jennifer glowed in the thrill and chill of the autumn night with their shivering but gallant escorts. The spirited band music and a "razzle dazzle" crowd were but part of an evening which ended with dance music, flash bulbs, and a renewal of old friendships amid traditional autumn decorations.

Senators Bring Victories Back To West

This past season saw West return to the winning habit in basketball. The Senators finished with a 12-8 record; second in the S.O.C. with a 6-1 record. Our loss came at the hands of the Champion New Boston Tigers 68-65. We also made it to the finals in the sectional tournament before falling to a strong Waverly team.

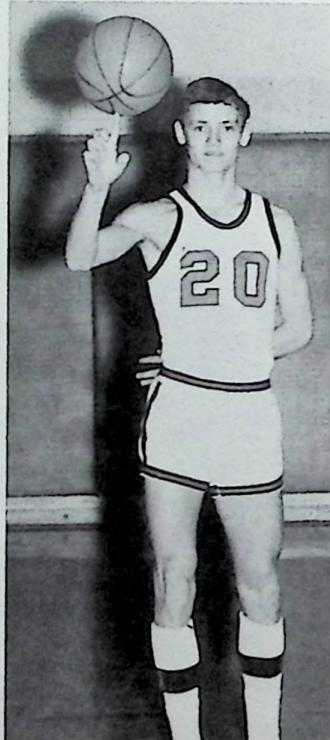

With three returning starters, Askew, Arnett, and Shy plus three other lettermen, Gibson, Hall, and Sparks next year looks even brighter for West High Basketball.

West had several boys gain honors for their performances. Fred Hall, a Junior, was named to the S.O.C. and S.C.L. All-Star teams. He also made the all-district team and was given honorable mention all-state.

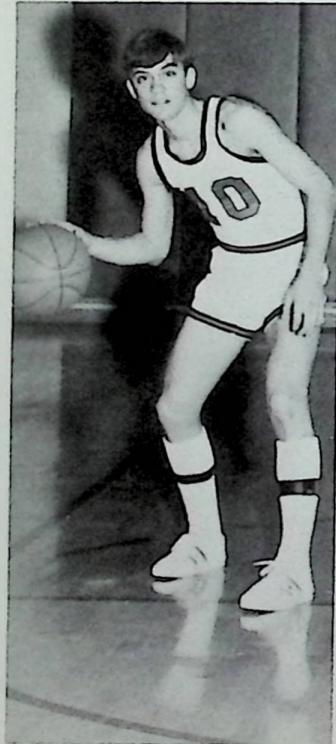

Randy Arnett, a Sophomore, was named to the all-S.O.C. team and was chosen on the second team S.C.L.

John Distel, a Senior, and Rich Askew, a Junior, were both given honorable mention in both the S.O.C. and S.C.L.

A Time For Us

The time and mood were right. Queen Peggy and her court were radiant and velvet-gowned in one of the school's most romantic and flawless homecomings.

A capacity crowd applauded each girl and her escorts as they made their way proudly through the line of smiling majorettes, cheerleaders, and ball players to the fairy-story castle on the stage.

Atop the rose and vine-covered balcony a beaming queen reigned supreme for one evening that each West student knew was truly "a time for us."

Patty Messer Miss Flame 1970

Once again, the Miss Flame contest, sponsored by the Washington Township Volunteer Fire Department, stirred the students into a white heat of enthusiasm as they selected representatives from each class.

The 1970 Miss Flame, Patty Messer, ignited many a spark with her luminous smile and warm personality. A parade and a dance were the highlights of the contest. Miss Flame, her court, and their escorts were honored guests at the dance hosted by the Fire Department.
