

PANTHER 93

A
BY ITSELF

TO ALL CHS 1993 SENIORS

AS WE ENDURE OUR FINAL YEAR AT CLAY HIGH SCHOOL REMEMBER ALL THE TIMES WE HAVE SHARED FROM ROSEMOUNT TO RUBYVILLE AND EVEN THROUGH THE HIGH SCHOOL YEARS. NOW WE WILL BE GOING OUR SEPARATE WAYS AND WILL NEVER SHARE TIMES LIKE THOSE AGAIN. I HOPE THAT THEY WERE SPECIAL TO ALL OF YOU AND THAT YOU WILL BE PROUD TO HAVE BEEN A MEMBER OF THE CLAY HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1993.

NEVER FORGET ABOUT TY AND HIS PEN, CAIN'S RESERVED SEAT IN I.S.S., ALL OUR CLASSES, BASKETBALL GAMES, PEP RALLIES, STOLEN SPIRIT STICKS OR THE OTHER EXPERIENCES WE HAVE SHARED. THEY HAVE ALL BEEN GREAT TIMES. I HOPE THAT ALL THE TIMES TO COME WILL BE BETTER FOR EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU.

AS THE SMALLEST CLASS IN YEARS FROM CHS, WE HAVE SUPPORTED EACH OTHER AS INDIVIDUALS THROUGH TIMES OF TRIAL, TRIBULATION AND ACCUSATION AS WELL AS MANY TIMES OF DESERVED DEGRADATION. AS WE OURSELVES KNOW, HOWEVER, WE ARE LOYAL TO ONE ANOTHER, WE CARE ABOUT OTHERS AND WE ARE PRETTY BRIGHT WHEN WE CHOOSE TO BE.

GOOD LUCK!

TAWNYA RUBY

1993 STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT

1992-93 Clay High School Faculty And Staff

Faculty and Staff Includes:

Dr. Theodore Adams, Local Superintendent; Mr. Ric Allwood, Science; Mrs. Betty Applegate, District Treasurer; Mr. Gary Billups, Band and Vocal Director; Ms. Terri Boldman, Health and Physical Education; Mrs. Claudia Brammar, Learning Disabilities

Helen Trapp serves as the secretary to the principal.

Mr. Jerry Buckler, Mathematics; Mrs. Julie Caudill, Teacher's Aide; Ms. Mary Jo Craft, Guidance Counselor; Mrs. Janet Deal, Social Studies; Mr. Tony Deem, Science; Mr. Ted Garrett, Industrial Arts

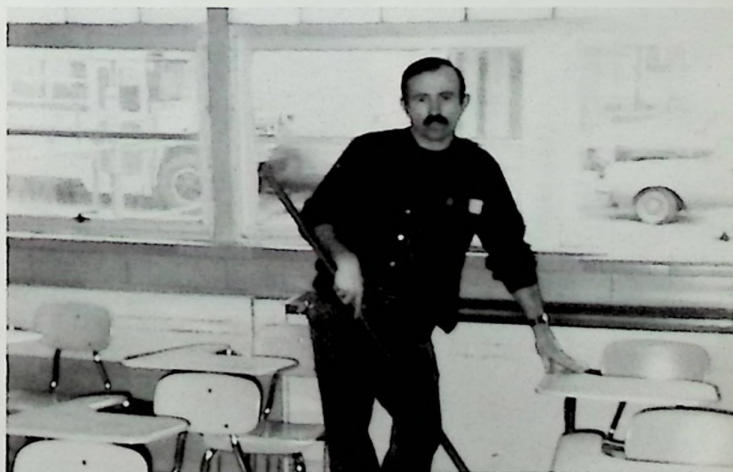

Mrs. Karen Gasho, English; Mrs. Rita Graf, Business Education; Mrs. Amber Humston, Art; Mr. Brian Jackson, Mathematics; Mr. Scott Lowe, Orthopedically Handicapped; Mrs. Kathie Martin, Assistant Treasurer

For The First Time

Clay Varsity Basketball overpowered our district with a 19-5 record. For the first time, the old boundaries were overcome. The Panthers conquered Sectional tournaments, and followed-up with a District Runner-up trophy. While a winning Basketball season alone does not make a school a success, these dedicated athletes working with the area's most accomplished coach make an unbeatable combination. We never had it so good, but we deserved it.

Wolfe Marks 400th Win

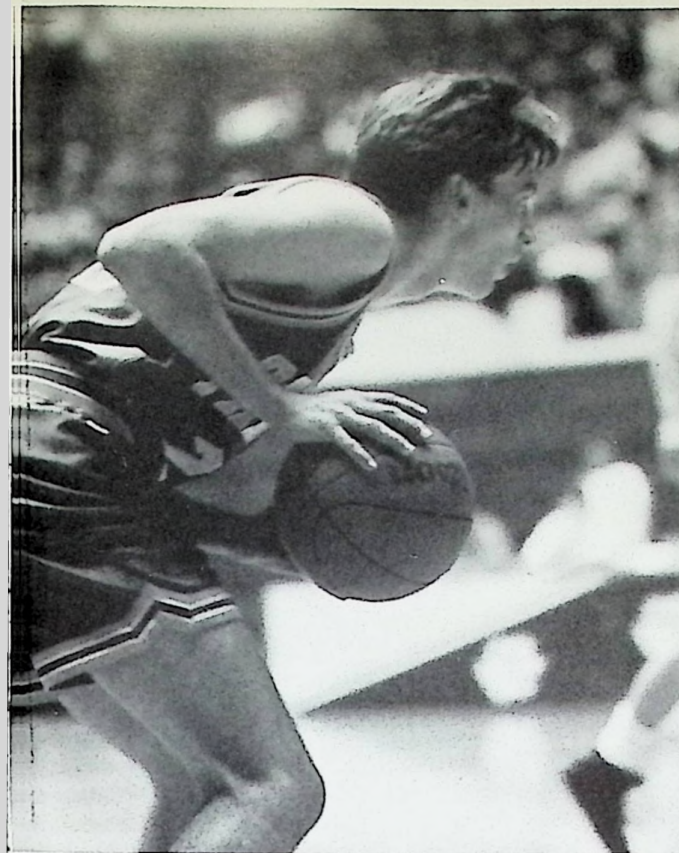

Coach Carl Wolfe celebrated his historic 400th career win following a breathtaking home game versus Ironton St. Joe. The game itself was distinguished by an even tougher panther defense and a spectacular slam dunk by 5'10" senior Mike Kelly.

Varsity Hoops

When all was said and done, the last ball stolen the last cheer still echoing, Panther Varsity came out on top. Not since the 1960's had Clay High seen such a phenomenal team. Never had the victories tasted sweeter, the losses hurt as deep.

White men CAN jump! Mike Kelly demonstrates the Jordan-like grace that made him one of our MVP's.

As The School Year Comes To A Close Clay High Bids A Fond Farewell To The Graduating Class Of 1993.

When the words of wisdom had been given, the diplomas handed out and the last walk of graduation day made, the graduates of the class of 1993 were students of Clay High no more.

For many this would be the last time they would see all of their classmates together. The years spent at Clay High have been a valuable part of each student's life. A time to live, learn, love and grow. A time to explore the past, present and dream to shape the future.

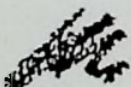

To the young men and women who pass through these halls as students for the last time, treasure your years here, cling to your ideals and help to shape a better world for humankind.

Good luck to you all. The graduating class of 1993 truly is A CLASS BY ITSELF.

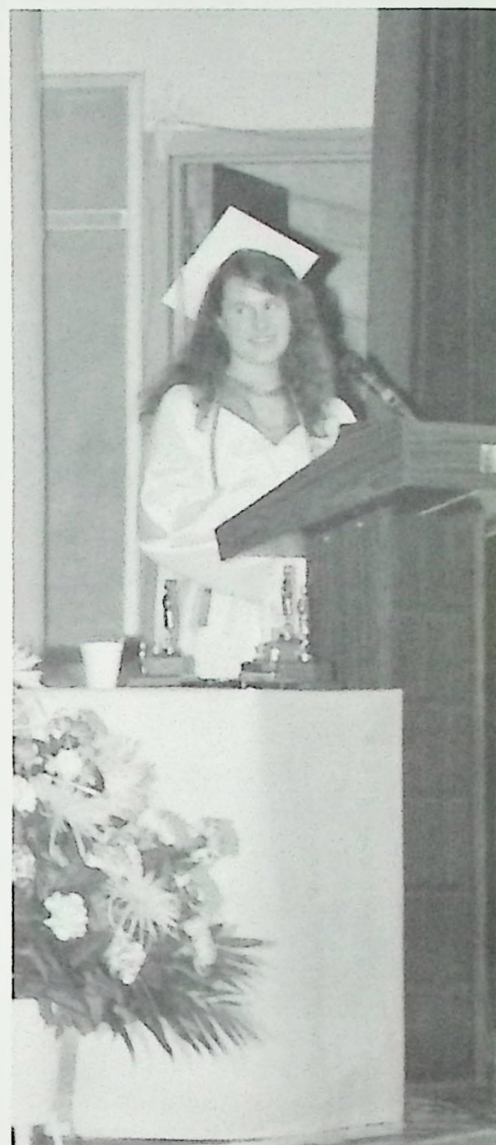

Leslie Patterson, Lara Shoemaker, and Debi Picklesimer were just three of the members of Clay High's outstanding Class of 1993.

TOP RIGHT: Beth Gasho, Co-Valedictorian of the Class of 1993 addresses the audience at graduation.

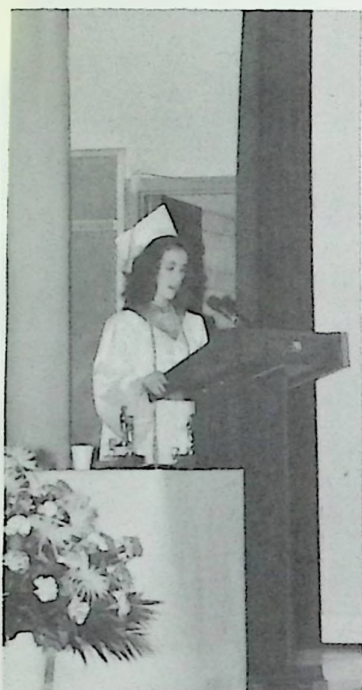

As usual, Chad Gearheart and Michelle Gable arrive early for the day's activities.

Leslie Patterson, Salutatorian of the Class of 1993, delivers the farewell address to her classmates.

The Class of 1993 is shown here assembled for perhaps the last time. Standing in front is the Guest speaker for commencement and the administration for the Clay Local School District.

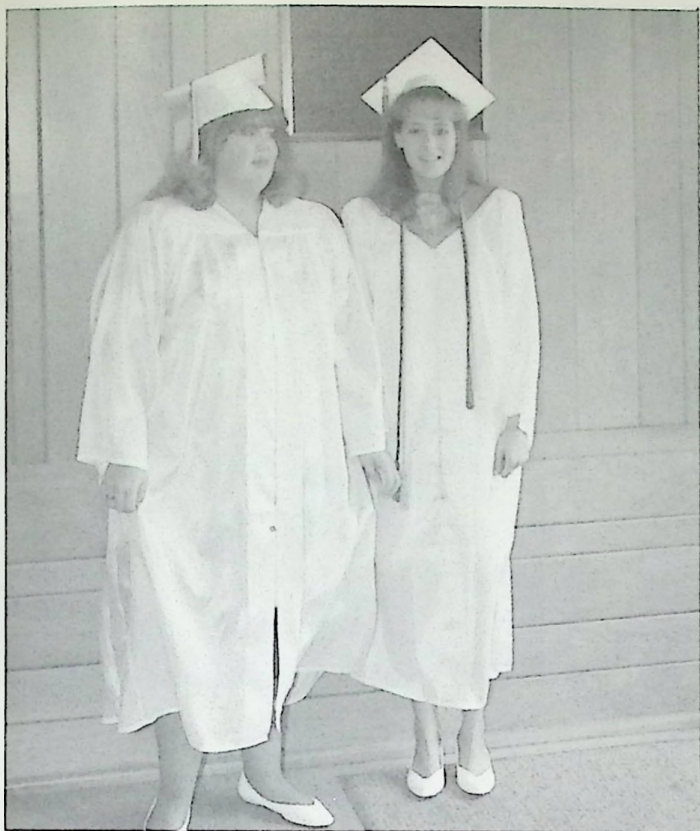

Below Mr. Walker, principal who guided the class of 93 through high school, addresses the audience as the seniors listen on to the last speech they will hear as Clay High Students.

Right Michelle Pettit and Beth Gasho, Co-Valedictorian, proudly walk down the aisle, clutching an array of daisies, class flower.

Tawnya Ruby, Student Council President, and Amy Mullins, Student Council Vice President, anxiously await for their cue to begin the graduation march.

Jim Mowery gives the dedication for the Class of 1993.

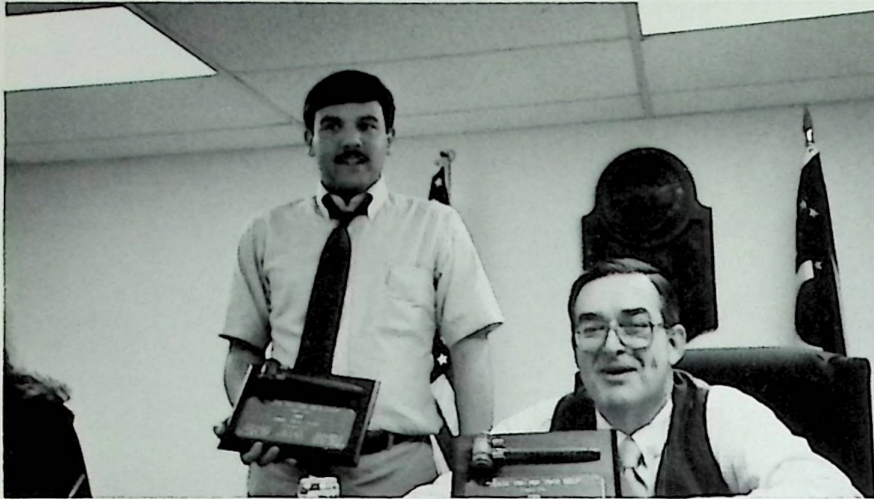

Jeremy Smith, Mike Rawlins, Larry Davis and Jason Rigoni help each other in preparation for the graduation exercises.

Clay High School and the graduating Class of 1993 were honored to have former student and successful businessman Mike Duty as the guest speaker for commencement.

Mock Trial

The Mock Trial team, led by Mark Rose and Judge James Kirsch, came one point away from going to state competition. But after months of practice, they walked away with a best lawyer and best witness award. And memories that will last a lifetime.
