Our Principal

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1952, in dedicating this annual, wish to thank our parents, for their unceasing effort in helping us to secure our education through the past years; to our teachers for their continual guidance and understanding; to the school board for their aid in preparing for our future; to the Mother's Club for their co-operation in all the activities we have undergone and to the many others who have aided us with our formal education.

We would especially like to dedicate this edition of the "Panther Echoes" to Mr. Bandy, our principal, and Mrs. Woods, our commercial teacher, because of their fine co-operation in helping us publish this annual.

Edward R. McCowen
County Superintendent

Superintendent McCowen received his B. S. Degree, in education, from Ohio University, the Master's Degree from Northwestern University, and has attended both Otterbein College and Harvard University. Through his leadership, numerous new courses have been added to the curriculum and a well planned development of all rural schools has taken place.

Mr. McCowen states, "For the child, we as educators must realize a responsibility to develop in the child powers for health, and for moral and social growth. We must realize that the welfare of the entire school and community is important, that all individuals are to become members of this great human society and that these individuals must learn many occupational skills. Each child becomes a cog in the ever turning wheel of society and each cog must find its place. Through the school, much help can be given to see to it that each cog does truly find its place." "The schools of today", said Mr. McCowen, "must be a positive force in a world full of stress and strain."

The Superintendent refreshes our minds that our slogan for many years has been, "Go Forward Scioto County Schools", and we are also reminded of his statement which has been quoted many times--The best is none too good for our boys and girls."

C. D. Bandy
Supervising Principal

Mr. C. D. Bandy, Supervising Principal, attended the following colleges and universities:

Rio Grande College	Colorado State
Ohio University	Arizona State
Wilmington College

Mr. Bandy completed his B. S. Degree in education from Wilmington College in 1937, and his Master's Degree in school administration from Arizona State in 1947.

He has been principal of Clay High School ten out of the twelve years that it has been in existence. Because of his knowledge of guidance and his interest in each student as an individual person, students of Clay High School have received valuable advice and guidance that will help them to a richer and better life when they leave high school.

Class History

As Freshmen we were a proud class of fifty-nine students under the advisorship of Mr. Long and Mr. Pflieger. In October, we had a Halloween Party and in the spring we had a wiener roast at Lake White. Our Freshman boys lost the Intermural Basketball Championship to the Seniors.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year, there were thirty-nine students. Our advisors were Miss Gerlach and Mr. Prior. This year the boys took the Intermural Basketball Championship. We had a picnic at Lake Roosevelt and a good time was had by all.

In our Junior year, there were thirty-eight members including two new members - Donna Foster from Peebles, Ohio, and Robert Humble from Wolf County, Kentucky. Our class advisors for the year were Miss Mary Meisel and Mr. Donald Leighty.

Our Junior Class play was, "Angel of Red Canyon," a three act play about a lady barber who came west to operate a hotel. All of the men in Red Canyon wanted to marry her. Finally, she married a miner from the East. The play was highly successful under the direction of Miss Meisel and Mr. Leighty.

In the spring of 1951, we had a picnic at Lake White. To help raise money for the Junior and Senior Banquet, we raffled chances for a turkey. The Banquet was held Friday, April 13, in the school gymnasium; the theme for the Banquet was "The Gay Nineties".

SENIORS ! The ambition of our school days ! Our class advisors are Mr. Monk and Mrs. Woods. Mrs. Woods replaced Mrs. Fulks at Thanksgiving. This year we had one new member added, David Litteral, from Lynn, Kentucky, making the number of Seniors thirty-seven. Before cold weather began, we had a party which we all enjoyed.

Now that we are Seniors, we find that our four years of work, recreation, and everything connected with high school days has been among the best years of our lives, thus far. We do hope that the class of '53, and the following classes, also, will enjoy their school days as we have.

Prophecy

Place - Chicago

Time - May 1, 1957

This was it ! This was the big day ! I stood looking up at the sign which read: COLDIRON AND HORNE, ELECTRICIANS. Imagine, at last, our own shop was opened for business.

After admiring the sign for a while, I finally went inside and sat down at my desk. Suddenly the door opened and in came our secretary, our old classmate, Donna Foster. She had an important looking letter which was from Judy Munn, former secretary of our Senior class. She is now chief accountant of the Marshall Field Company. The letter was an invitation to a reunion of the Clay High School Senior class of 1952, asking Lowell Coldiron, my partner, and myself, Carl Horne to it. I told Donna about the invitation and she replied that she had received hers also.

The following day, the three of us met at the railroad station and purchased our tickets to Portsmouth. As we boarded the train and went to our seats we discovered Bob Humble, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune, across the aisle from us. He told us that Bob Simon was now playing the outfield for the Chicago White Sox, and that he was on the train in the car behind us. I arose from my seat and went to get a drink of water.

When I returned, I found Howard Morgan, of the United States Air Force, sitting in my seat talking to Lowell. Howard said he happened to be on leave at the time of the reunion.

We pulled into the station at Cincinnati. We saw three of our classmates get on the train. They were: Mavis Cox, who is now in the Women's Air Force; David Litteral, who is also in the Air Force--but not the Women's; and Luther Wright, who is married and living in Louisville working at the Ford garage. As we took a stroll through the train cars, who do we happen to meet but Charlene Keaton and Dorothy Litteral, who are operating a Lonely Hearts Club in Cincinnati. Moving on through the train, we met Dick Hunter and Mrs. Hunter (Sue Manley). Dick is running a Lock Shop in Chicago. Returning to my seat, I slept for a while. When I awoke we were pulling into the station at Portsmouth.

After getting off the train, we hired a taxi which was driven by Joan Burchett. While going up the viaduct, we noticed a Hot Rod passing us on the wrong side. The car was driven by Don Wymer.

While coming out Scioto Trail, we saw Don Souders coming out of his house. We stopped to talk to Don and found that he was working in the Steel Mill (following in his father's footsteps).

While going up Rosemount Road, we saw that a patrolman had stopped Don Wymer. The patrolman with the big feet happened to be John Kaut. Turning off onto Route 139, we saw a mailbox which read: MORRIS BECKETT. It was at a large farm. We passed an old Model-A which was driven by Ben Wright. We glanced into the back seat and counted five children. (That's married life for you.)

While going through Eden Park, we saw Dick Martin. He is still chasing Betty Fenton after five long years. (Do you think he will ever catch her?) Approaching the school we saw that it wasn't open yet so we went up to Reed's Grocery where we found Mary Lou still clerking in their store. (What's the matter Lou? Wouldn't they let you go to the WAC's?)

We stopped to get a bite to eat and met Cedric Ruby, who is now the fat man in the Ringling Brothers Circus. We also met Eleanor Beadle, now the typing teacher of Clay High School.

Later we returned to the school. As we were parking, Marketta Tackett and Olena Blevins parked beside us. They told us that they were Power's Models in New York. At the door we met Suzanne Miller, now Mrs. Richard Hayslip. We heard a woman talking with a strong southern accent. We turned around and discovered Mary Anna Smith, who is now married to a Georgia peach farmer. We also heard a man bragging about the amount of ducks he had shot last season; we found it to be Paul Sly.

Looking around, we saw the star athlete, Ron Pellegrinon, who is now coach of Clay High School and getting Mr. Monk's success by using orange juice. Mr. Bandy, our principal, informed us that he had received a telegram from Paul Truman who was in Washington--visiting. We were sorry to hear that he couldn't come.

We walked into the auditorium and saw Mrs. Vice, former Carol Burgess, Mrs. Daniel Gilbert, former Shirley Schuler, and Mrs. Lewis, former Ida Mae Justice, who are now settled down in their little white cottages, living a happy married life.

All of a sudden, we heard a terrible screaming and screeching; we turned and saw Roger Scowden--singing "Tennessee Waltz." Accompanying him on the piano was Nora Barnes. The people started fainting, and Carol Jo Miller brought in her husband, who is a doctor, to revive them. His nurse was Mary Lou Stahl. After everybody was on their feet again, we all decided upon another reunion in five years.

After I had returned home, I lay in my bed thinking of my classmates. All in all, everything had turned out fine.

Class Will

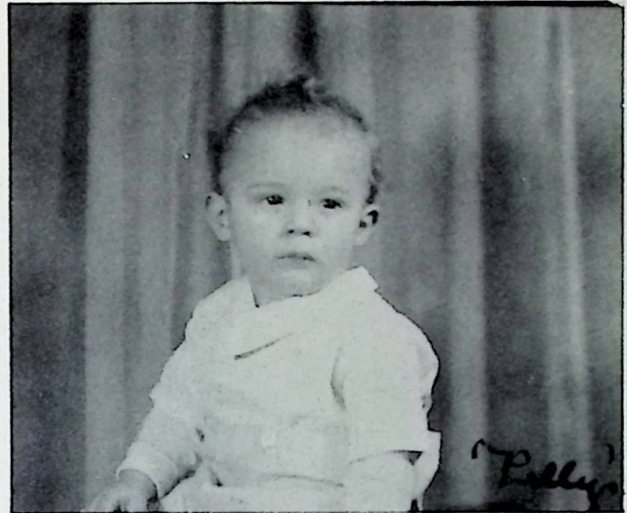

Be it remembered that we, the Senior Class of 1952, of Clay High School, being of unsound mind and no memory, but mindful of the uncertainty of this life, do hereby make this our last will and testament revoking all former wills by us made.

I, Eleanor Beadle, do hereby will my smallness to Walter Cox.
I, Carl Horne, do hereby will my quietness to Howard Bennett. (He can surely use it !)
I, Mavis Cox, do hereby will my height to Hazel Chandler.
I, Ben Wright, do hereby will my great singing voice to Arlie Blevins. (Watch out Broadway, here he comes !)
I, Dorothy Litteral, do hereby will my temper to Barbara Bennie.
I, Ronald Pellegrinon, do hereby will my curly hair to Tom King, my good looks to Sam Erwin, and my basketball ability to Carl Chandler. (Anything else, Pelly?)
I, Donna Foster, do hereby will my favorite typewriter to Eunice Evans
I, John Kaut, do hereby will my big feet to Jack Russell.
I, Mary Lou Reed, do hereby will my appetite to Alice Robinson.
I, Roger Scowden, do hereby will my charm with New Boston girls to Cletus Jordan.
I, Luther Wright, do hereby will my sleeping pills to Shirley Moss.
I, Anna Blevins, do hereby will my slimness to Anna Lou Conley.
I, Shirley Schuler, do hereby will my "quietness" to Barbara Boydston.
I, Paul Truman, do hereby will my 23 inch waistline to Betty Wright.
I, Carol Jo Miller, do hereby will my aching feet (from selling cokes) to Garnet Fultz.
I, Dick Martin, do hereby will my old girl friends to John Thompson. (That is, all but one Freshman.)
I, Judy Munn, do hereby will my love for basketball (players?) to Audrey Warner.
I, Carol Burgess, do hereby will my cheerleading ability to Louise Pyles. (Rah ! Rah ! Clay)
I, Howard Morgan, do hereby will my singing ability to Wilma Ray. (That's a joke, son !)
I, Lowell Coldiron, do hereby will my ability to "brown nose" to Juanita Winters.
I, Suzanne Miller, do hereby will my love for Mercury owners to Patricia Hill.
I, Dick Hunter, do hereby will my comedy act to Georgetta Truman and Leon Garden. (I like it ! I like it !)
I, Ida Mae Justice, do hereby will my sweet personality to Romona Wright.
I, Cedric Ruby, do hereby will my good bookkeeping grades to Phyllis Marshall and Virginia Miller.
I, Marketta Tackett, do hereby will my pep to Alice Hodge.
I, David Litteral, do hereby will my "Kentucky accent" to Nola VanHoose. (Too late, David, she already has it.)

I, Charlene Keaton, do hereby will my acting ability to Virginia Rickey.
I, Bob Simon, do hereby will my beautiful white teeth to Phyllis Buffington.
I, Mary Anna Smith, do hereby will my shyness to Earl Call. (Does that include your pretty pink blushes?)
I, Don Souders, do hereby will my basketball ability to Clay Vice. (As if he needed it.)
I, Bob Humble, do hereby will my "witty sayings" to Rosalie Hulbert.
I, Joan Burchett, do hereby will my freckles to Barbara Tanner.
I, Don Wymer, do hereby will my hot rod to Don Cox.
I, Nora Barnes, do hereby will my red hair to Richard Church. (Won't Nora look cute without any hair?)
I, Paul Sly, do hereby will my "jump shots" to Dave Richard. (Don't hit your head on the ceiling, Dave.)
I, Mary Lou Stahl, do hereby will my artistic talent to Jackie Phillips. (Come on, Jackie, let's see your drawings in next year's annual.)
I, Morris Beckett, do hereby will my speedy work horses to Edwin Benner.

To Mr. Bandy, our principal, who has been our faithful guardian for four years, we, the Seniors of 1952, give the extreme pleasure of getting rid of us. May he never have another class as tiring and stupid as this one. May he also have a long life in which to gloat over the superiority of the next generation of pupils over ours.

Coach

Mr. Long has coached Clay High School for twelve years, and during that time Clay has won the Championship six times, and never went below third place. We all appreciate his great coaching and interest in the school that he has taken. There is no other coach in the county that can compare with him.

All the ball players wish to express their thanks for his coaching them to a great year.
