

SHAWNEE

CHIEFTAIN

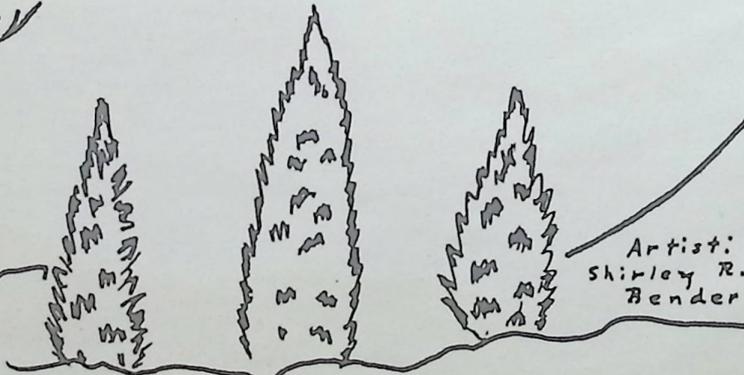

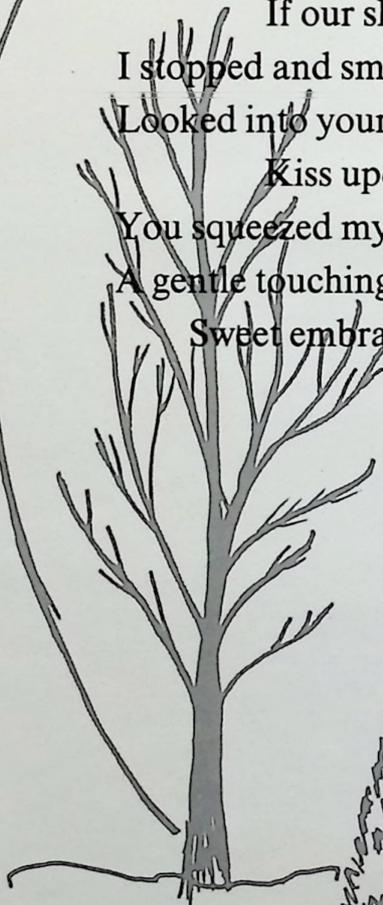

A WINTER'S DAY ON CAMPUS

You sang to me over the inter-com for all to hear.
We ate chicken while we talked of hopes and dreams —
Walked and laughed in snow knee-deep and didn't care
If our shoes got wet.
I stopped and smoothed your ruffled hair,
Looked into your hazel eyes and suddenly sneaked a
Kiss upon your cheek.
You squeezed my hand and drew me close to you.
A gentle touching of two souls in friendship's
Sweet embrace.

THE DAY FINALLY ARRIVED

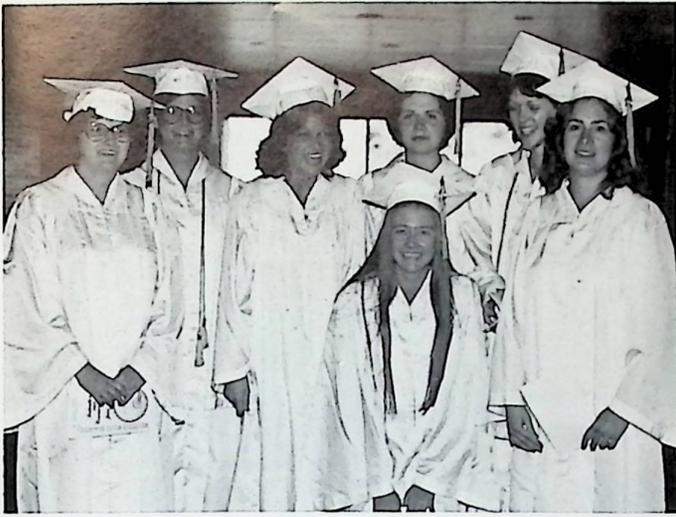

On June 16, two hundred and forty-three students waited patiently in the Activity Building to receive their diplomas. They waited through speeches and presentations; finally their long awaited time arrived. As their names were called, they made that last walk onto the stage to receive their diplomas from the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Strafford. The day was beautiful, but most of the graduates didn't notice the weather because they were too happy about receiving their degrees.

A) Dr. Flinchbaugh and Mr. Strafford present Mr. Vern Riffe with a picture of the new Vern Riffe Industrial Building.

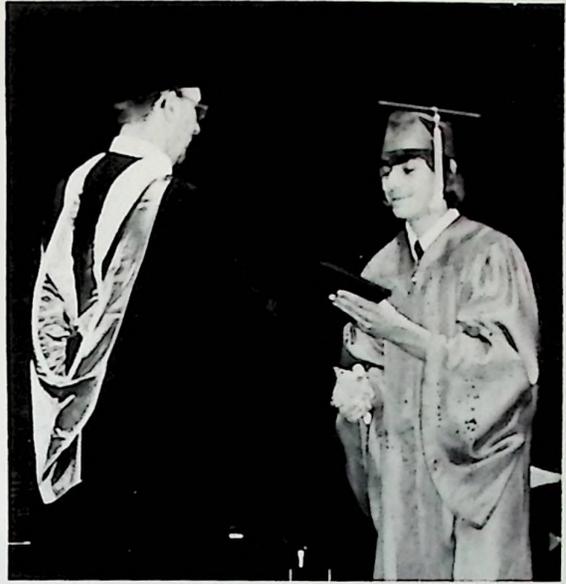

B) Speaker of the House of Representatives of the state of Ohio, Mr. Riffe, gives the graduates some words of wisdom.

C) Taking the last few steps as students.

RANGERS

1978-79 RANGER BASKETBALL

The season was highlighted by the Homecoming game, which was the first game in the new gym. It seemed as though the whole student body and the entire population of Portsmouth came to see a well-played, aggressive, hard-fought game and that's what our Rangers gave them. To quote Coach Weinbrecht on the season as a whole, "Our record may not have been the best, but the games we played were close and competitive."

A) The men behind the team planning a method of attack: Coach Weinbrecht and Assistant Coach Lee Bass. B) Our mighty Ranger team: Stan M. Haney, D. Tyler, C. Jones, A. Watkins, D. Overstreet, A. King. Kneeling: K. Hargrove, D. Singer, T. Farris, C. Walker, F. Garth.

BAD NEWS BEARS ARE LOOKING GOOD

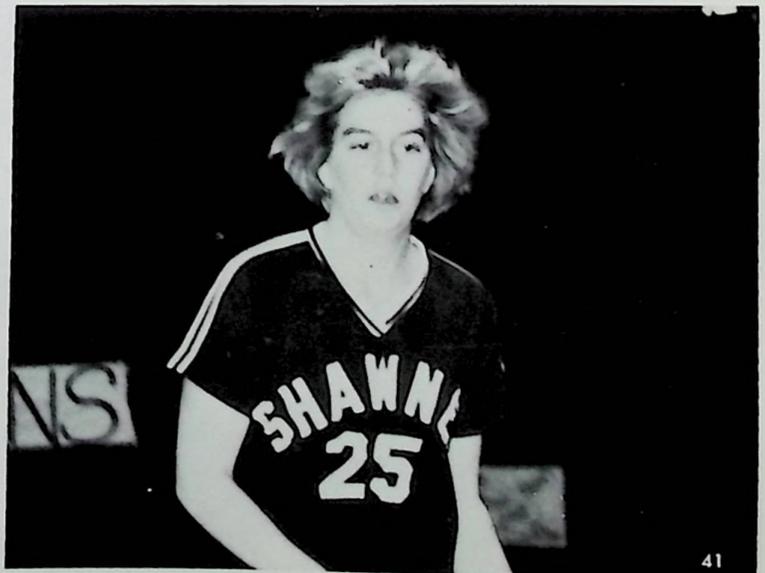

The Women's Basketball team played a 14 game season this year. Although their record wasn't the best, the girls steadily improved during the season, and finished as runners-up in a four team tournament. The team has operated as a club team for the past two years, and as a result was not affiliated with any league organization.

A) Bad News Bear: R. Oskins (Coach), S. Gulley, D. Allen, J. Cyrus, K. Brown, J. Dotson, A. Mann, D. Murphy. B) Strategy meeting C) Sitting down on the job, Donna? D) Starting another game.

A) Brown shoots for two points. B) I've got it! C) Gully puts it up. D) Allen takes her best shot. E) Where's the ball? F) Get off her back, Dotson! G) Mann dribbles down court. H) Don't look so scared, Joni.

SHAWNEE STATE CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders constantly showed their enthusiasm for our team during the basketball season. But without the guidance and patience of their advisor, Pat Smith, these girls could not have succeeded in becoming one of the top squads in the Junior College rank.

The Drama Club enlisted many interested students this year, and had a good turn out for their meetings. They ventured to Columbus to see The Wiz and the opera, "Madame Butterfly."
 1st Row: G. Easter, B. Everett, S. Meade, C. Yezzi, J. Nesler. 2nd Row: G. Holderness, S. Finneran, L. Yezzi, C. Applegate, L. Humston. 3rd Row: J. Evans, J. Houston, J. Smith, D. Mullens, B. Pryor.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Twenty-nine people from the Art Club and the Business department spent four days in New York City in May. They flew to New York from Columbus. While on their trip, they visited many museums, took in a play, visited Greenwich Village, and did some shopping (of course). A few of them took a carriage ride through Central Park, while others rode the Staten Island Ferry and went sight-seeing in the Big Apple. The trip was greatly enjoyed by all.

- B) Boarding the plane for their short flight.
- C) S. Bender, D. Crain, P. Crain, J. Sinclair, and the carriage driver in Central Park.
- D) The most famous lady in New York.

STRIKES REALLY ADD UP

The Bowling Club bowled from October to March at Sunset and Rainbow Lanes. About twenty people participated each Monday night. The bowlers were not on teams; they bowled independently each evening. At the end of the season, Mr. Decker was awarded a plaque in appreciation of his support for the bowling club.
A) Mr. Decker (Advisor), J. Jackson, T. Tsou, J. Foster, M. Short, B. Teeters. 2nd Row: D. Sloas, P. Jenkins, C. Bearhs, C. Bobst, L. McHenry, C. Browning.

DISCO FEVER HITS

Free Disco lessons were offered to students and their guests during the Fall and Winter quarters. They were sponsored by the Student Senate, and were held in the lobby of the Allied Health building. Lois Rase was the instructor for the lessons.
B) C. Browning, D. Crain, J. Arthur, T. Brown, J. Nesler, B. Young, P. Jenkins, D. Wolfe, C. Bobst, D. Sloas.

THE DIPLOMATS

A

The Student Senate kept busy this year by planning a variety of activities for students to take part in. They sponsored dances (which included the Homecoming Dance and the Disco Cruise), Valentines Day Mixer, bowling party, and a Muscular Dystrophy carnival and dance. Although they planned many activities for the student body, their main purpose was faculty-student relations. A) J. Matheny, P. Parlin, K. Shoemaker, F. Garth, L. Miller, C. Bearhs, B. Smith, C. Bobst, P. Jenkins. Not Pictured: D. Schartz and C. Detty.

THE CHIEFTAIN MAKES ITS DEBUT

B

D

The Yearbook got off to a slow start this year, and was almost scrapped a few times because of lack of interest and student participation. As you can see, a few students worked very hard on this project to put out a nice book to remember college days. B) K. Andrews and M. Dixon picking out pictures to use. C) M. Crabtree and D. Colley lay out a page. D) Yearbook Staff: M. Crabtree, D. Colley, K. Andrews, M. Dixon. Not Pictured: T. Flinchbaugh, J. Nesler, and R. Simon.

MUSIC TO THEIR EARS

Poetry Circle: 1st Row: Lisa Yezzi, Janet Nesler, Dixie Crain. 2nd Row: Anna Allen, Mr. Wilson, Dexter Wolfe, Janice Shively. Not Pictured: Fran Stead, Jeff Davis, Mollie Crabtree.

The poetry circle welcomes anyone who enjoys poetry. The group had lunch at the Rountable; then went to the campus Ministry to read poems, either their own works or of a favorite poet.

At least three poetry circle members had had work published. Among them is Janet Nesler, the writer of the poem in the front of this book. This poem was chosen from thousands of manuscripts to be published in the College Poetry Review.

ARTISTIC TALENTS PREVAIL

The Art Club, lead by Tom Stead, is interested in all types of art, including painting, music, and sculpting. Guest artists are present at most meetings where they explain their field of art to the club members.

Some of the club members went to New York in May. They visited several art galleries and saw a Broadway show.

The outdoor club didn't get to do as many things as they would have liked to do; but they did venture to Shawnee State Forest to do some hiking, took a canoe trip on the Scioto River from Waverly to Lucasville, shot the white water at Ohio Pyle, and had a skating party. In June, they went to Youghiogony River in Pennsylvania.

The ski club didn't get on the white stuff very often; but when they did, everyone else on the slopes should have left. Although Lyle Miller did his best to have an accident, he wasn't the one with the broken leg!

D

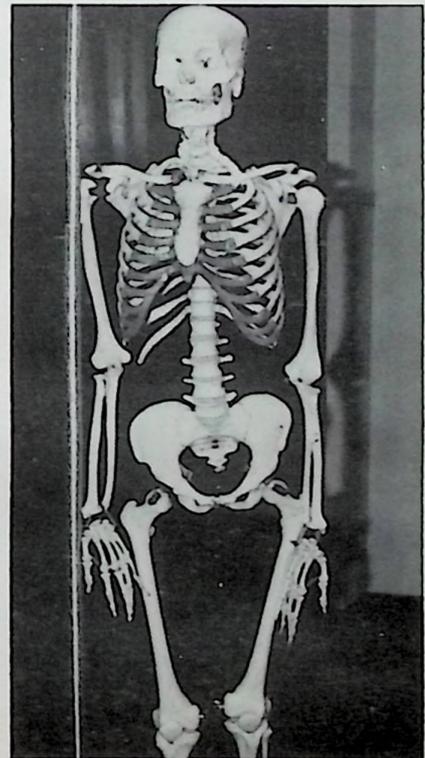

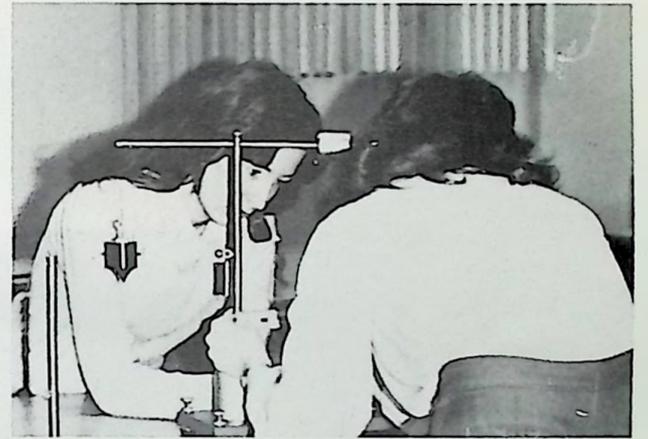

A) Outdoor Club: 1st Row: C. Everman, J. Jackson, G. Bond, T. Tsou. 2nd Row: M. Haney, B. Decker (advisor), J. Snyder, J. Rahe, B. Young. B) Relaxing after a hard day of skiing. C) That's enough out of you, Dexter! D) Save those crutches, John. Someone may need them next year!
