To Miss Orlett
One of the best teachers West has. Hang in there and don't let the fresh-

them the Odyssey to do.

To Miss Orlett,
Thank you so much for all the help and
you gave me in getting the scholarship without any + + + + +
have made it
you. S. R. - 15

To Miss Orlett
I've learned so much from you, especially in scholarship. Can't you tell me of us, I tend to forget like one of us. Thanks for you're a teacher. Thanks for all the work!!!

... the old and new

the new school now fits like an old shoe — we're trying on a new football field for size.

. . . music maestro, please!

illness has forced our maestro mr. giles, to leave us — we are sorry to see him go — but he leaves behind so many treasured memories that we find it difficult to be sad — in our hearts we know that mr. giles' soul has always been declared in the splendid gesture of his music.

... summer preparations

picnics —
band camp —
marching,
music, and
hard bunks —

football practice —
"river days" float —
annuals arrive —
shopping.

. . . early morning at west

where your thoughts are, there you are . . .

... not just another morning,

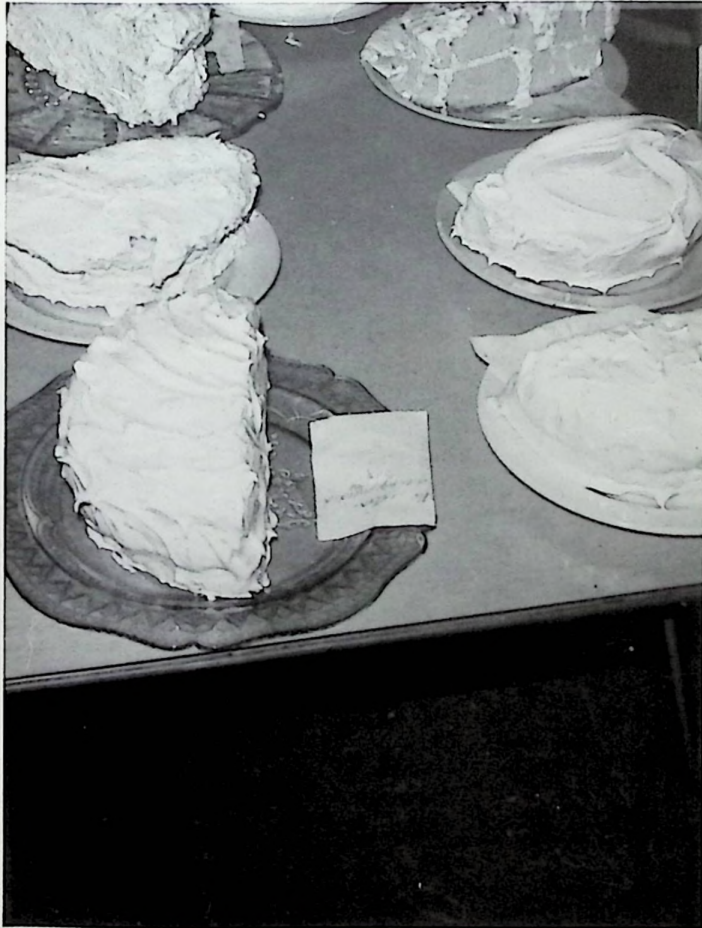

but a morning at west — listening, asking, doing,
watching, working — west people know how to live.

... afternoon at west

art and action —
speaking and strolling — dozing and doing —
entertaining and encouraging —

... and now
the day is done

some leave —

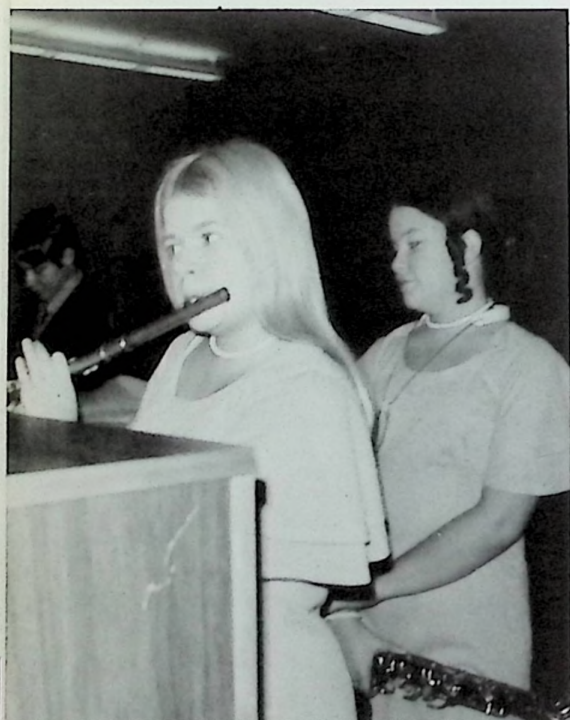

some stay —

some work —

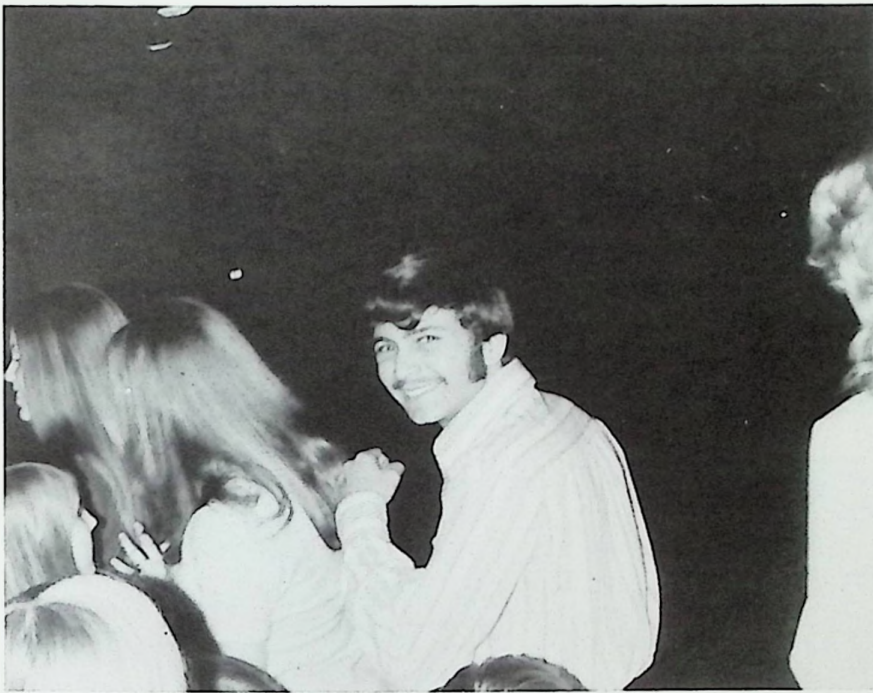

some play.

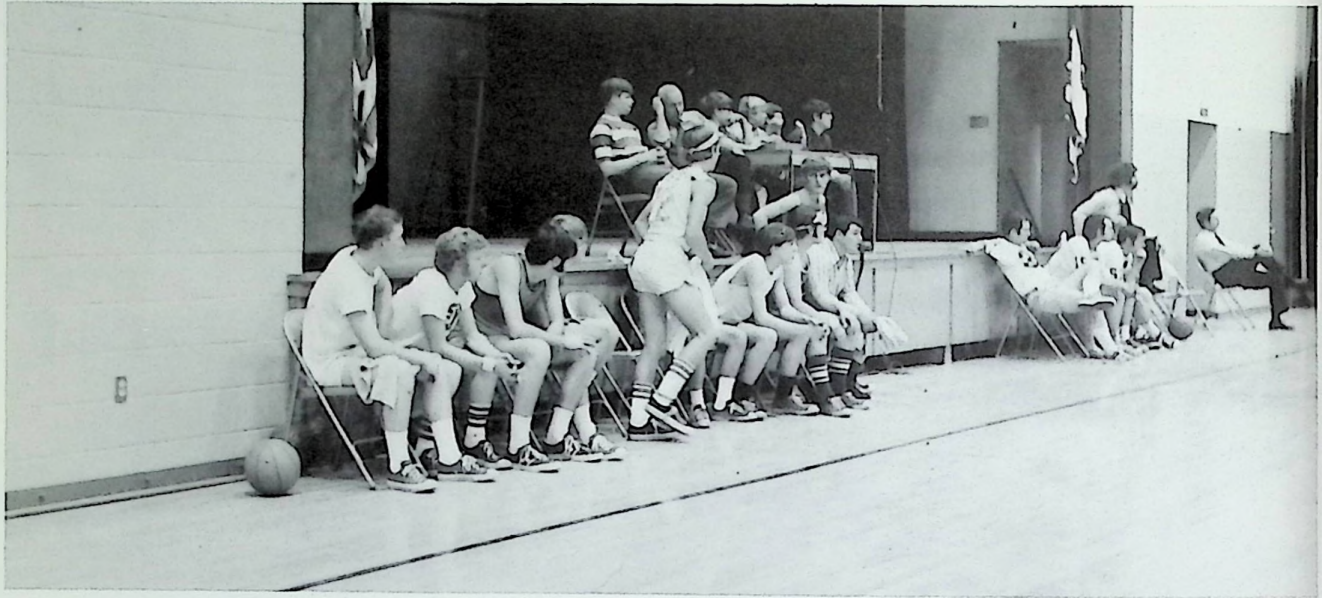

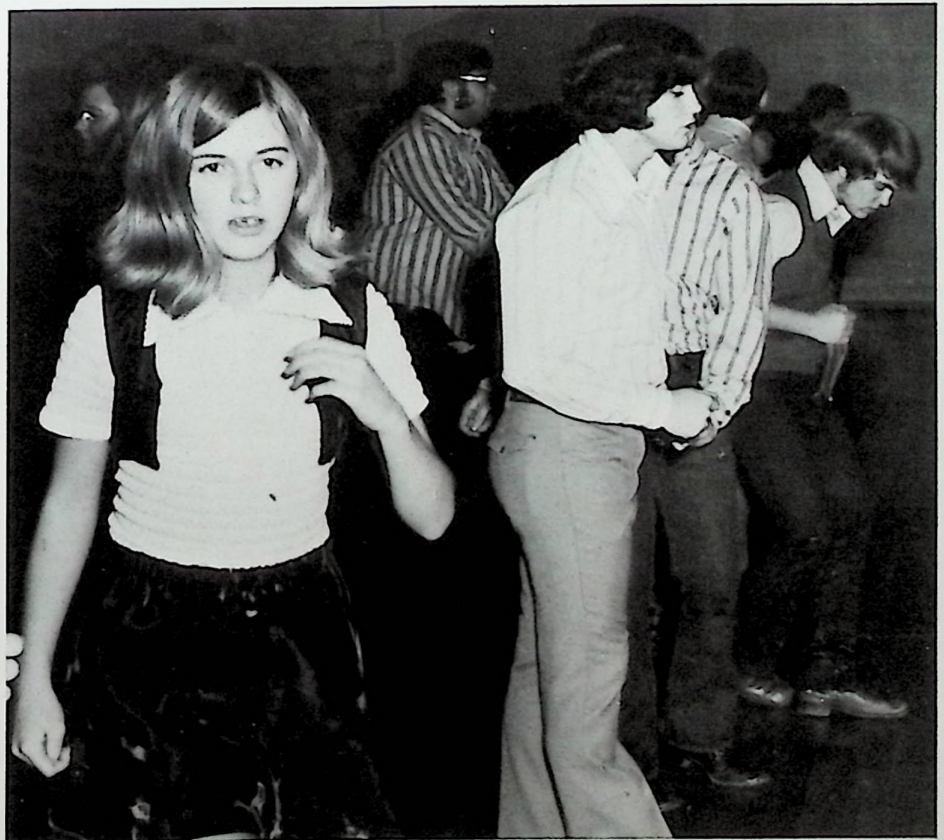

. . . social
hours
after school

... vo-tec

— a new teaching concept

— a new way of life
for some west students

... pigskin panorama

a west senator crashes through the hoop; the coach and quarterback pick the play; the band marches; and the cheerleaders are tense! all are a part of the "71" football scene.

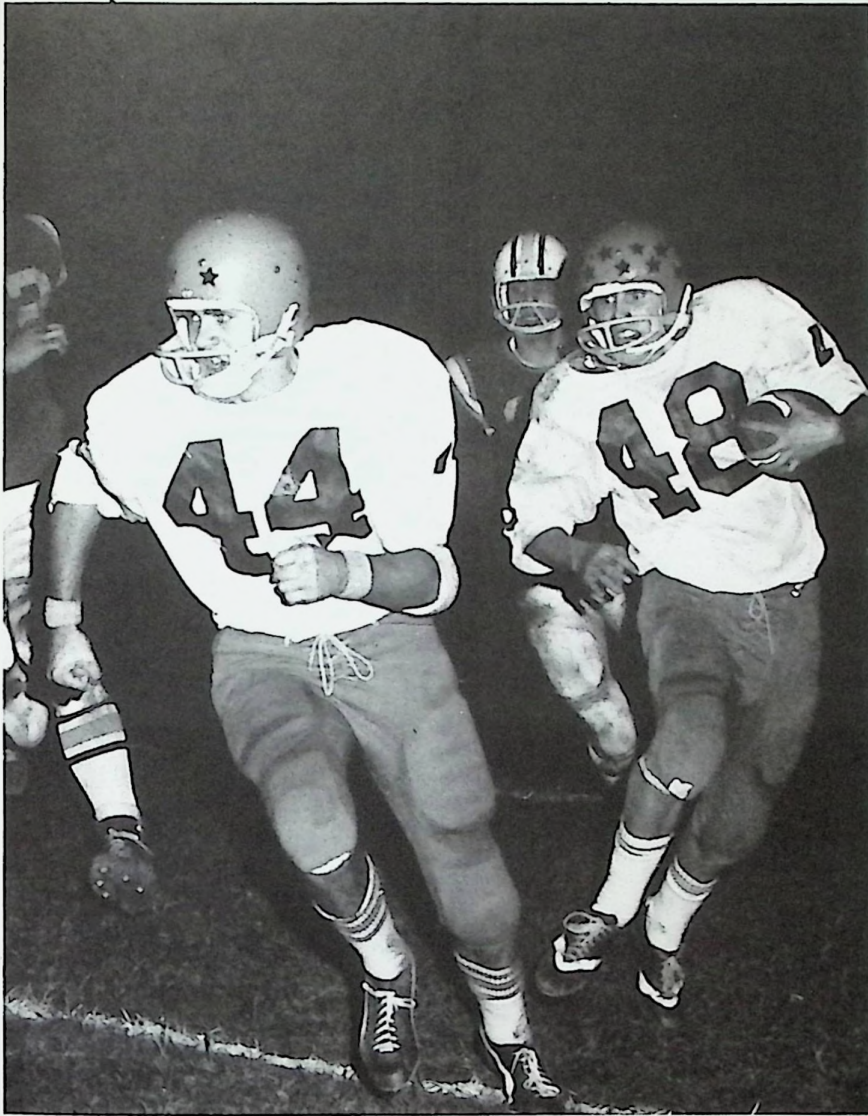

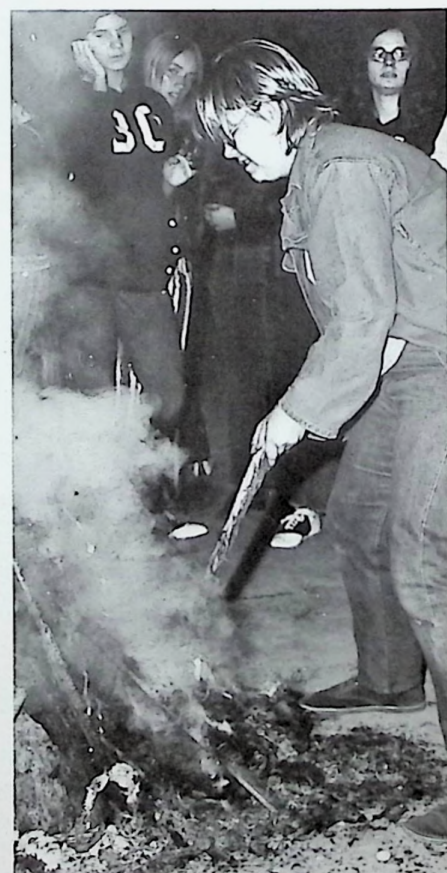

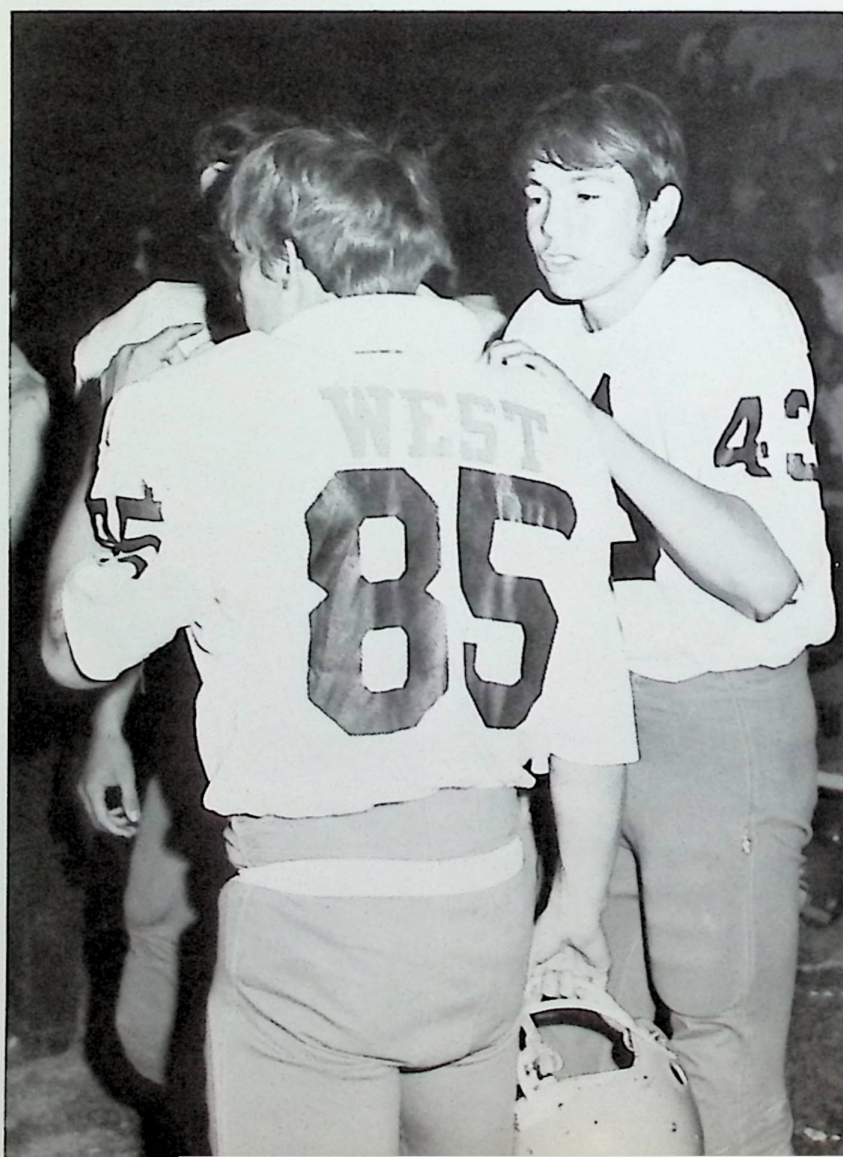

. . . frosty fun-filled nights,

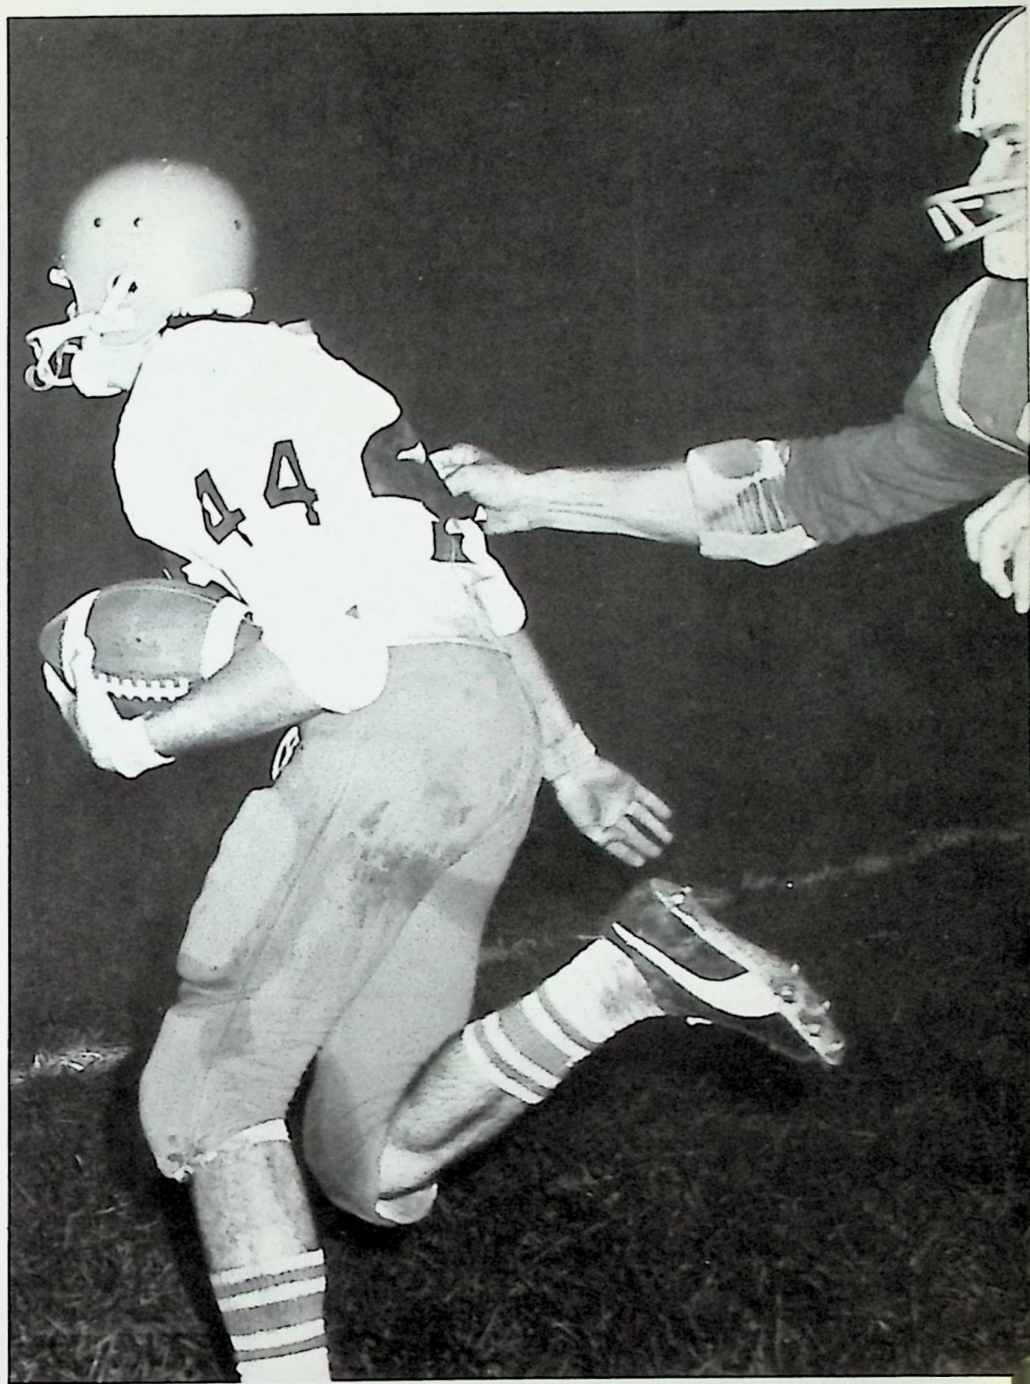

enthusiastic students and teachers, a great bonfire, last minute pep talks by the coach, and an all-out effort against our arch rivals Notre Dame climaxed one of the most exciting football games of the season.

... spirited students,

field action, bench talk and crowd rallies played key parts in a senator winning season.

BEAT EM
Rally
Pictorial

To Miss
my old
days

... the taste of success

the cheerleaders, majorettes, pep band, loyal fans, and plenty of action on the field were the main ingredients in the "71" football fare.

. . . basketball homecoming '71

. . . an evening we will never forget — queen dottie and her attendants, clapping and cheering the team through four nerve-shattering overtimes, remained radiant — by the end of the evening everyone felt the deep-down kind of luxury that comes from knowing victory and a successful homecoming.

Our Flag – Show It Proudly

WE AMERICANS cherish our Stars and Stripes.

It has given us heart and hope and strength ever since this nation was born.

It has flown in times of trouble and in times of triumph as a symbol of America's unquenchable ideals from the very time those ideals were first proclaimed.

It flies today as a sign that Americans, proud of their country's stirring heritage, are still determined to carry forward the great American dream, untarnished and unchanged.

It is our flag.

It is us.

Millions of us fly the flag at our homes on special days and are constantly deeply moved as we gaze upon it waving in the breeze, just as other Americans were moved when they, too, looked upon it at Valley Forge . . . twice in Flanders Fields . . . on Okinawa . . . and in Korea . . . and now in Vietnam.

It is a glorious flag.

We should fly the flag more often for when we do so we salute the countless God-given blessings we enjoy in this country — the land of the free — and visually express our individual support of the American credo: one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

And we should be humble in its presence, ever aware of the millions who have marched beneath its folds to fight and die that we might continue to enjoy those blessings and benefit from that belief.

Old Glory.

Born in 1777.

May it wave forever.

And proudly.
